

Business Development

Somerset-Pulaski County Development Foundation works with numerous economic development organizations at the local, regional and state level to help evaluate the needs of clients considering the area as a potential business location. The county owns two large tracts of land located in close proximity to I-75 called the Valley Oak Commerce Complex and the Valley Oak Technology Complex. The VOCC is conveniently located fifteen miles from I-75 and offers sites for manufacturing businesses large and small. VOTC, a 150-acre complex for those companies that require a variety of enhanced services, a highly skilled workforce and a sophisticated telecommunications infrastructure. Contact us today to help you evaluate your needs and address any questions you have regarding the area. After you have done a thorough evaluation of the website, call us and schedule a visit to see for yourself why we say the opportunities in Pulaski County are endless.
